

The Body & Soul Health Fair

Sponsored by Weight Loss Surgery Specialists

Together We Will Triumph of The Disease of Obesity

Dear Participant

Plans are underway for Body & Soul Health Fair to be held. Come join us!

The Health Fair is free to all attendees' with educational and informational events which promote and healthful decision making through activities and educational material distribution. Providing the opportunity for health screening, self-assessment and will generate awareness about the Obesity epidemic that affects more than half of Americans - including at least 1 in 5 children. We are anticipating at least 1000 attendees for this event.

Our goals of the organization and activities of the Health Fair is to bring awareness to The Disease of Obesity, Childhood Obesity, to educate on preventive health care, sound health practices, obesity related health issues, treatments, mental, nutritional health, local access to these services, and promote the involvement of the entire family to participate in the healthy lifestyle changes.

We are extending vendor opportunities to professionals in the medical fields, and to businesses that provide products and services for our attendees such as health, fitness, beauty, and accessories. As a vendor, you may distribute literature, provide health screenings, show films and/or slides, and acquaint the public with your services. Vendors may to sell or take orders of their product. Promote your company's products and services while supporting a worthwhile cause.

The activities during the Health Fair include the ever popular lab test and many exhibits by local healthcare-related vendors and professionals, the event will feature activities such as a Fashion Show, Seminar, Several Guests Speakers, door prize and educational material giveaways.

Publicity will include newspaper display ads and articles, radio spots, and posters.

We welcome any suggestions and comments that will help us achieve this goal.
